Data Driven Strategies

SUMMARY OF KEY ACTIVITIES

2023

Spark Street Advisors is a strategic advisory firm that brings together evidence and excellence in analytic thinking to improve effectiveness and outcomes, maximize the impact of investments, and drive the intersection between strategy, policy, and advocacy. Our clients include multilateral organizations, the private sector, philanthropy, and civil society organizations.

We are experienced in managing, implementing, and evaluating multi-stakeholder initiatives. Our analytic capacities include quantitative, qualitative, and mixed-method approaches. Our independent research has been seminal in informing global public health discourse, including, for example, the development of an independent monitoring structure for the new Pandemic Treaty.

The practice draws on professionals worldwide with expertise in public health, and data science, artificial intelligence, impact and outcomes research, product development and introduction, performance management, monitoring and evaluation, and advocacy. We work in multiple languages, including English, French, Spanish, Arabic, Hindi, Russian, and Portuguese.

This report summarizes our key activities and accomplishments in 2023.

🔥 The WHO has just published a release on the Mpox (monkey pox) outbreak in Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC)

The case fatality rate is nearly 5%, and already 600 people have died.

While there are effective vaccines, they are not available to those in DRC.

Member States have begun negotiating a new #PandemicAccord for approval at the World Health Assembly in May 2024.

It's a pivotal moment for the agreement's future.

In this week's @LancetGH, we explain how accountability can be baked into the text from the get-go.

With the knock of a gavel, the @UN_PGA just declared the adoption of the declaration on Pandemic Preparedness and Response.

No discussion. Less than 3 seconds to object.

A moment of history in the blink of an eye.

Accountability for Pandemic Preparedness and Response is not Geneva or New York – it's about Geneva AND New York.

And Cape Town and Rio. And Stockholm and Bangkok.

It's about everyone everywhere.

It's about taking responsibility at the highest level of government.
